

Want to go to college?
Of course you can!

Please write a 500-word essay and answer the following question:

What are your life goals? How will attending college help you reach those goals?